

Prostrations For Peace

A Community Response to 1579 days of War and Suffering

July 15, 2007
Sunrise to Sunset

(5am-8pm)

North Shore Beach, Rogers Park small pier

Contribute to this community response to the suffering of war. Perform sun salutations, prostrate your body, bow, offer prayers, create flags, write letters, make offerings of flowers, candles, and incense to a collective altar for peace on the pier.

Donations will be accepted for EMERGENCY, a humanitarian, neutral, non-profit organization that provides high-quality treatment, surgery, and rehabilitation to civilians in war and post-war areas around the world, including Iraq and Afghanistan. www.emergencyusa.org
